To

The Secretary to the Govt of Mysore
General and Revenue Departts.

Sir,

I have the honour to state that in a meeting held on the 29th June 1900, the Sirthalli Municipal Board resolved to levy octroi duty on the articles mentioned in the enclosed statement that are imported into the Municipality at the rates proposed therein. A copy of the resolution is herewith submitted for information.

2. It will be seen from the statement that a tax of Rs 785/- is estimated to be collected annually on the goods that are to be imported into the town.

3. I beg to recommend that sanction of Government may be recorded for the levy of Octroi tax on the articles mentioned in the statement as resolved by the Board.

4. For the present the collection work will be managed by the Amildar and Municipal servants existing in the town. A separate recommendation for the required establishment will be submitted after a year if the scheme works profitably.
